Art. 2 - Requirements

The following are compulsory requirements:

- be duly enrolled in the second or third year of the course in the current academic year (2025/2026) and in any case in a year that is not subsequent to the first year 'fuori corso' beyond the normal duration of the course of study;
- achievement of at least 2/5 of the university credits (CFU), rounded down, provided for in the chosen study plan, obtained in the previous academic year (2024/2025).

Examinations that do not result in an actual mark but merely in a pass grade are not counted for this purpose.

Examinations not taken at the university as part of study abroad programmes (LLP/Erasmus) are only assessable, for purposes of number and average, if they are duly validated and registered.

Art. 3 – Remuneration

Remuneration is €11.00 net per hour. Payment is divided into 3 instalments of 50 hours each. It is necessary to activate the Carta di Ateneo in order to receive payment.

If the collaboration is interrupted and/or suspended by the University or in any case not completed, the remuneration due will be commensurate with the hours actually worked. The payment of the remuneration is made by the University Administration at the request of the Head of the Office.

The awarding of collaboration contracts for University services does not prejudice the allocation of other benefits by the Fees, Grants & Scholarships Office.

Art. 4 – Submission of application (deadlines and procedures)

The application must be submitted by 8 p.m. on 10 March 2026.
In the application, applicants may indicate in addition to the Office selected as their first choice, a second Office (as a second choice) that may be considered in the absence of other suitable candidates for the latter.

Applications must be submitted at the link: https://pica.cineca.it/iulm/ in accordance with the following procedures:
a) students accessing the PICA platform for the first time must register by clicking 'New Registration' and entering the required data and the IULM institutional e-mail address (@studenti.iulm.it).
After entering the required data, click 'Register' and the system will send an email to the e-mail address entered with instructions to confirm the registration;
b) those who already have a user account (created for participation in previous calls) can access without registering by entering only their username and password and selecting REPRISE or REFEREES.
If the user has the credentials but does not remember them, they must click on 'Forgotten credentials' to receive an e-mail containing the password.

For technical problems relating to accessing the PICA platform and filling in the application form, please contact CINECA directly by clicking on the 'support' heading at the end of the page and describing the problem encountered.

Applicants must attach compulsory the following documents in PDF format:

- Curriculum vitae;
- for non-native Italian-speakers, the presentation of certification of the level of knowledge of the Italian language and/or the passing of a university exam in Italian is required (according to the level required by each Office in Annex A). Failure to submit the certification and/or pass the exam in Italian will result in the student forfeiting the opportunity to carry out the collaboration assignment;
- Italian students are required to present certification of their level of knowledge of the English language and/or to pass a university exam in English (according to the level required by each Office in Annex A). Failure to submit the certification and/or pass the exam in Italian will result in the student forfeiting the opportunity to carry out the collaboration assignment;
- valid Identity Card/Passport;
- Tax code.

No other method of submitting the application is allowed. Until the deadline, it is possible to save the application in draft form. The date of submission of the application is certified by the system. After the deadline it will no longer be possible to send the application.

To submit the application you must:

- click on Presenta/Submit;
- at this point three methods for signing are proposed, the applicant must choose the third method: Sign the document manually;
- save the PDF file without modifying it;
- print the PDF file and sign it;
- scan the signed document and upload it to the system.

After completing and submitting the application, applicants will receive an email confirming that the application has been filed, which will include the application ID number.

The University will verify the truthfulness of the substitutive declarations and self-certifications, pursuant to Consolidation Act no. 445/2000.

Art. 5 – Duration and signing of the letter of commitment

Collaborations may not last more than 150 hours in one academic year nor less than 8 hours in total. Activities must take place within the normal working hours of the assigned office.

Within ten days of the publication of the ranking list, the successful candidates must sign the declaration of confidentiality and the letter of commitment containing all the particulars of the subject and procedures of the collaboration, as well as any further details that may be necessary to identify precisely the activity requested.

If the student withdraws or fails to complete the signing of the letter of commitment by the date indicated, the assignment shall be offered to the next student in the ranking.

For justified reasons (illness, temporary absence, etc.) the selected student may request to postpone the signing, without prejudice to the obligation to give due written notice to the Office in which they are carrying out the activity.

For the academic year 2025/2026, activities shall take place from the signing of the letter of commitment until 30 April 2027.

The collaboration does not lead to the recognition of university credits and does not contribute to determining the degree mark.

Art. 6 – Ranking

A ranking list is drawn up following the submission of applications. Each candidate is assigned a score consisting of the sum of:

- the score calculated on the average of the marks obtained in examinations passed by the student (whether part of their study plan or not) as part of their degree course in accordance with the provisions of Annex B;
- the score calculated for each cum laude grade as provided for in Annex B;
- score calculated for the income band to which the student belongs, as provided for in Annex B;
- score awarded by the Head of the Office (IULM) where the student may have already worked in the previous year according to the following scale: 0 points=unsatisfactory; 1 point=satisfactory; 2 points=good; 3 points=excellent.

The ranking list will be published by 24 March 2026 (on the page "Vivere in IULM ==collaborazione degli studenti").

The assignment of collaboration activities will take place on the basis of the ranking list and in accordance with the preferences indicated by the student in their application (1st and 2nd choice) until the available places provided for in the call for applications are exhausted. Students will be assigned to the chosen office in accordance with the following criteria:

a) in the order of the ranking until the available places are exhausted, indicated by the student as their first choice. In the event of a tie, the student belonging to the lowest income bracket prevails, in accordance with the call for applications for each academic year; in the event of a further tie, the student with the highest total number of credits acquired; in the event of a further tie, the student with the best average; in the event of a further tie, the oldest student by age;

b) in the event that some services are not assigned, the service will be assigned in the order of the ranking to the students who indicated it as their second choice.

In the event of a tie, the student belonging to the lowest income bracket prevails, in accordance with the call for applications for each academic year; in the event of a further tie, the student with the highest total number of credits acquired; in the event of a further tie, the student with the best average; in the event of a further tie, the oldest student by age.

Students enrolled in the third year of Bachelor's degree courses who intend to continue their studies at the University by enrolling in the first year of Master's degree courses will be able to continue their collaboration without interruption and still at the same office.

Any compliance in the data entered in the ranking list must be reported to the Institutional Affairs Institutional Affairs and PhD Office by writing to bandi@iulm.it by 5 p.m. on 26 March 2026, specifying: surname, first name and student ID number; after this deadline, no additions or requests for changes will be accepted, nor any further compliance.

Art. 7 – Forfeiture

If the winner loses their student status (e.g. non-renewal of enrolment for the following year, renouncement of studies, transfer to another university), they must notify the Institutional Affairs and PhD Office immediately and forfeit their contract. They must also renounce their contract, in whole or in part, if they are absent for long periods (study abroad or internship) and cannot therefore carry out their assigned activities on a regular basis, unless the period of absence has been agreed in writing with the Head of the Office.

Art. 8 – Incompatibility

Collaboration is incompatible with any other simultaneous paid training or research activity, or with employment, including fixed-term employment, at Università IULM.

The following are not eligible for collaborations:

a) students enrolled in the first year of a Bachelor's degree course;
b) working students and students enrolled part-time;
c) students enrolling at the same time in two courses of study and designating the other university as their reference for accessing the benefits provided for by current legislation on the right to study, for the entire period of simultaneous enrolment on the two courses.

Art. 9 – Final provisions

For all matters not provided for in the call for applications, reference shall be made to the Regulations for Student Collaboration in University Services cited in the introduction and the provisions of the relevant legislation in force shall apply.
