Article 17 of the University Academic Regulations

1. Students enrolled at IULM University may withdraw from their studies at any time by clearly and explicitly expressing their wish in writing.
2. The withdrawal is irrevocable; it does not exclude the possibility of re-enrolment even in the same course of study. The Faculty Councils concerned, in accordance with their established criteria, shall verify the non-obsolence of previously acquired credits for the purposes of possible subsequent recognition.
3. In the event of withdrawal from their studies, students who have enrolled in a year of a university course are not entitled, under any circumstances, to a refund of the fees and contributions paid. They shall be required to pay the full amount of the fees and contributions due at the date of the request for withdrawal, in addition to the withdrawal fee determined annually by the Board of Governors.
