MA Thesis /PhD Dissertation on Collaborative Translation Award

To promote excellence in Collaborative T&I research, the “International Center for Research on Collaborative Translation” (from now on the “Center”) rewards MA theses and PhD dissertations in English, French and Italian that make a significant professional/practical or academic contribution to the field of Collaborative Translation.

The call is open to any student from any country.

The winner will receive an honorarium of € 300 and a “Merit Diploma”. The Awards Ceremony to announce the winner will be celebrated in spring 2024 (the date of the Ceremony will be communicated to the winners via email).

Evaluation

The evaluation is based on writing and research skills demonstrated in the thesis/dissertation, as well as on the overall quality of the work.

Thesis will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

- degree of innovation in the proposed methodology or technology;
- potential for application in real-world scenarios;
- potential impact on theory and practice
- potential impact on a global scale.

The deadline for the submission is January 30, 2024. The MA Thesis /PhD Dissertation must be sent to francesco.laurenti@iulm.it in a single PDF file (maximum file size 50 MB).

The “Center” Steering Committee will appoint the Award Evaluation Committee, which will consist of 2 Commissioners in addition to the Director. Decisions will be made by the Evaluation Committee. All the decisions of the Evaluating Committee are final.

Eligibility

Any dissertation/thesis in the area of collaborative translation/interpretation and related fields is eligible for entry. All eligible theses/dissertations should have been assessed and classified by the university of origin up to 15 months before the date of submission of the abstract to the jury and never have been a candidate for the same award.

At the time of application, the theses/dissertations must be accompanied either by a statement from the supervisor of the applicant, jury or other body of the university of origin, indicating the date of completion and/or assessment. Should you have any questions, please email francesco.laurenti@iulm.it.

Candidates should authorize the processing of their personal information according to the GDPR (Ue 2016/679) and the Italian law on privacy (D. Lgs. 101/2018).

Winners authorize the “International Center for Research on Collaborative Translation” to disseminate news about the award through the usual media (web, newsletter, audio-visual, press) and to communicate via email with the candidate for interviews.
