

Getting ready for a study abroad experience

STUDY ABROAD OFFICE

a.y. 2025-2026

What is International Mobility?

Thanks to international mobility programs, you can spend a period of your studies abroad, attending lessons and taking exams at a host University.

In previous agreement with IULM University, exams passed abroad will be recognized upon your return.

What are the opportunities abroad for the 2025/2026 academic year?

COMPULSORY LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

In order to participate in ANY mobility call, you will have to upload in your application the document certifying that you have the appropriate level of linguistic knowledge for your chosen destination:

- either an International Language Certificate;
- or the confirmation of passing the IULM language proficiency test.

If you choose destinations in different language areas, you must upload an appropriate document for each language.

WHERE CAN I FIND THE LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS?

- The compulsory language requirements are indicated in the “Destination” sheets attached to the various notices and divided by degree course;
- Until the publication of the 2025 call for application, for information only, you can view the international certifications or language levels required by individual destinations in the “Destinations” sheets for the 2024 Mobility Call;
- Announced destinations and language levels required by the partner universities may, however, change by 2025.

See the GUIDE TO LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS for further information.

Application Submission

- The regulations of the various programmes, the proposed destinations and how to apply will be available at the end of JANUARY 2025 (with the exception of the dual degree call with Royal Roads University, which will be published in December 2024);
- When the calls for applications will be published, specific online meetings will be held to explain the different programmes in detail;
- The international language certificate or the IULM language proficiency declaration or the possible exemption must be uploaded in the application; in the absence of a suitable language certificate, the application will be automatically rejected.
