REGULATIONS FOR UNIVERSITY FEES AND CONTRIBUTIONS ACADEMIC YEAR 2022/2023 FOR STUDENTS ENROLLED IN DEGREE COURSES AND MASTER'S DEGREE COURSES

The Academic Senate and the Board of Governors – after consultation with the competent teaching structures – decide annually on the planned number of enrolments for each course of study. The Board of Governors also determines on an annual basis the procedures and amounts to be paid for enrolment (Article 5, point 6 of the University Academic Regulations).

This extract from the Regulations (Section 2) is addressed to students of foreign nationality, belonging to the European Union and extra-EU countries, and to students with Italian citizenship or dual citizenship, whose family resides abroad where it produces income and possesses assets, who enrol for the first time or renew their enrolment in a degree course or Master's degree course for the academic year 2022/2023, and for whom there is a single contribution band.

Annex 2 (page 26): Ministerial Decree no. 156/2021 – list of developing countries.

SECTION 2

2.1 – STUDENTS CONCERNED

This system of contributions shall be applied to all students of foreign nationality, belonging to the European Union and extra-EU countries, and to students with Italian citizenship or dual citizenship, whose family resides abroad where it produces income and possesses assets, who enrol for the first time or renew their enrolment in a degree course or Master's degree course for the academic year 2022/2023, and for whom there is a single contribution band.

The total amounts shown in the following tables are net of the regional tax for the right to study, currently set at €140, and the fixed stamp duty, currently €16.

2.2 - REDUCTIONS

- For foreign applicants residing abroad who are admitted to the distance admissions test, the test fee is set at €60, which may be waived if the it is taken through a Recruiting Agent.
- Students who have graduated with a first-level degree from IULM University or the Scuola Superiore per Mediatori Linguistici Carlo Bo with a mark of 110/110 cum laude and who enrol in a Master's degree course for the academic year 2022/2023 shall be granted a partial reduction of 20% (twenty) on university fees and contributions for the first year of enrolment in the academic year 2022/2023, regardless of the contribution band allocated.
- Each tax-dependent member of a family unit subsequent to the first member who is enrolled in IULM University for the academic year 2022/2023 shall be granted a partial reduction of 30% (thirty) on university fees and contributions if applied for before 28/02/2022.
- For foreign students who have completed a mobility period of at least one semester at the IULM University during their first-level university degree starting from the academic year 2017/2018, a single reduced contribution bracket will be assigned, corresponding to the third contribution bracket, for enrolment in the academic year 2022/2023 to a Master degree course.
- For foreign students who will participate to a Dual Degree program in the academic year 2022/2023, which comprises the payment of a contribution to the foreign university partner shall be granted a partial reduction of 50% (fifty) on university fees and contributions for the first year of enrolment in the academic year 2022/2023, regardless of the contribution band allocated.
- Upon request of the students enrolled in the first year of the academic year 2022/2023 of Degree Courses and Master's Degree Courses, 10 places in the University Residences will be reserved at the reduced rate of €3,080.00 a year (rate applied in the academic year 2021/2022, subject to changes in the academic year 2022/2023). Applications are to be sent to admission@iulm.it by 30/06/2022. Places will be assigned on a first come, first served basis until all places have been assigned, and subsequent to confirmation of enrolment.
- The students meeting the criteria described in paragraph 2.5, enrolled in any year of a regular full-time degree course or Master's degree course, will be eligible to apply for the assignment of 5 study grants of €3,000.00 each, which shall be assigned in accordance with a ranking system based on completed studies, corresponding to at least 40 CFU/ECTS credits, awarded for finished courses, specifically referred to in the study plan proposed by the Faculty, and correctly recorded in the student's transcript before the second examination session of the academic year 2022/2023. Credits from exams or activities carried out prior to enrolment shall not be considered valid towards the CFU/ECTS count, even if they have been recognised and inserted in the student's transcript. If applicants have the same number of credits, selection is based on the weighted average mark gained in exams passed. The scholarship will be awarded in a single payment in September 2023 following the publication of the rankings.

- Willing to demonstrate its solidarity with the university students of the Belarusians Association in Italy "Supolka", IULM University confirms for the academic year 2022/2023 the extraordinary scholarship to be awarded to a student of Belarusian citizenship. The scholarship will result in the total exemption of university fees and contributions due for the academic year 2022/2023, except the regional tax for the right to education.

The following reductions are also provided for:

- 1st year degree courses, 50% reduction in enrolment fees for the first year of the course, for the academic year 2022/2023, for the first 20 students, allocated to the top contribution band, enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in a full-time degree course, and who have obtained foreign admission certification with a grade equivalent to 70/100, calculated on the basis of the formula drawn up by the Ministry of Education, University and Research (MIUR), upon presentation of appropriate international certification of the grade obtained for admission purposes.
- 1st year Master's degree courses, 50% reduction in enrolment fees for the first year of the course, for the academic year 2022/2023, for the first 20 students, allocated to the top contribution band, enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in a full-time Master's degree course, and who have obtained foreign admission certification with a grade equivalent to 80/110.
- 2nd year degree courses, 50% reduction in enrolment fees for the academic year 2022/2023, for 20 students, allocated to the top contribution band, enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in the 2nd year of a full-time degree course, to be assigned according to a ranking system based on the results of the previous academic year, equivalent to at least 35 CFU/ECTS credits gained from completed courses specifically referred to in the study plan proposed by the Faculty, and correctly recorded in the student's transcript before the second examination session of the academic year 2021/2022. Credits from exams or activities carried out prior to enrolment shall not be considered valid towards the CFU/ECTS count, even if they have been recognised and inserted in the student's transcript. If applicants have the same number of credits, selection is based on the weighted average mark gained in exams passed.
- 3rd year degree courses, 50% reduction in enrolment fees for the academic year 2022/2023, for 20 students, allocated to the top contribution band, enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in the 3rd year of a full-time degree course, to be assigned according to a ranking system based on the results of the previous two academic years, equivalent to at least 90 CFU/ECTS credits gained from completed courses specifically referred to in the study plan proposed by the Faculty, and correctly recorded in the student's transcript before the second examination session of the academic year 2021/2022. If applicants have the same number of credits, selection is based on the weighted average mark gained in exams passed.
- 2nd year Master's degree courses, 50% reduction in enrolment fees for the academic year 2022/2023, for 12 students, allocated to the top contribution band, enrolled for the academic year 2022/2023 in the 2nd year of a full-time Master's degree course, to be assigned according to a ranking system based on the results of the previous academic year, equivalent to at least 45 CFU/ECTS credits gained from completed courses specifically referred to in the study plan proposed by the Faculty, and correctly recorded in the student's transcript before the second examination session of the academic year 2021/2022. Credits from exams or activities carried out prior to enrolment shall not be considered valid towards the CFU/ECTS count, even if they have been recognised and inserted in the student's transcript. If applicants have the same number of credits, selection is based on the weighted average mark gained in exams.
- Only for degree courses in Arts, entertainment, cultural events; Tourism, management and culture; Interpreting and communication and Master's degree courses in Art, development and the market; Hospitality and Tourism Management, as well as newly activated Bachelor's and Master's Degree courses in the academic year 2022/2023, 20 total exemptions are assigned for full-time enrolment in the academic year 2022/2023, which can be modulated into a higher number of partial exemptions, subject to evaluation of the admission qualifications obtained abroad and additional elements of merit, including the outcome of the admission test. In particular, enrolling students should have obtained foreign admission certification with a grade equivalent or superior to 80/110 for Degree Courses and 90/110 for Master's Degree Courses, calculated with the MIUR formula.

- g) Only for students who received a total exemption in the academic year 2021/2022 shall be granted 20 total exemptions for students enrolled in the 2022/2023 in the 2nd year of full-time Degree Courses and Master's Degree Courses. These will be granted on the basis of a merit ranking that takes into account the exams of the previous academic year, equal to a minimum of 35 CFU/ECTS for Degree Courses and 45 CFU/ECTS for Master's Degree Courses, deriving from completed exams regularly registered by the student within the second exam session of the 2022/2023 academic year, written in the curriculum proposed by the Faculty.

The reductions will be assigned upon request on the part of the students to be submitted to admission@iulm.it by 15 September 2022, on a first come, first served basis until all grants have been assigned, and subsequent to confirmation of enrolment in the academic year 2022/2023 and of the required requirements.

In any case, students remain fully responsible for costs established hereby by the University for stamp duty, the regional fee for the Right to University Study, and any additional costs for late payment.

None of the reductions described in this article may be combined one with another, nor with the reduction provided for under Legislative Decree no. 68/2012 for students eligible for the Regional Scholarship for the academic year 2022/2023.

If a student is granted more than one reduction, the most favourable reduction shall prevail.
