The application must be submitted by:

- 1st session: 14 February 2022
- 2nd session: 7 April 2022
- 3rd session: 25 May 2022

Applications for admission received after the dates listed above may be taken into consideration only for the tests of the following session (subject to verification of the availability of places).

Students who fail to pass the test in one session may apply for a subsequent session using the Online Services, without having to pay a further test enrolment fee, subject to verification of the availability of places.

The dates of the tests already scheduled are subject to changes, which will be communicated to the candidates in advance. The tests will be carried out online.

Criteria for admission

Internal graduates and undergraduates: graduates or students enrolled for the academic year 2021/22 who expect to graduate before the autumn session for the academic year 2021/22 (i.e. before 31 December 2022) in the following degree courses:

- Public Relations and Corporate Communication
- Comunicazione d'impresa e Relazioni Pubbliche (in Italian)
- Corporate Communication and Public Relations (in English)

with an average exam mark (not the final degree mark, but the average mark of the exams taken prior to graduation) of at least 25/30, and with at least 110 CFU credits registered on 14 February 2022 and an average exam mark of at least 25/30 who apply for admission in the first and second session will be placed in a ranking list (without taking any tests) according to the average mark obtained, considering:

- for undergraduates, the average mark of exams registered as of 14 February 2022;
- for graduates, the average mark for the degree expressed as a mark out of 30 (the average mark obtained prior to taking the final degree exam).

Internal students who meet the above requirements (with the exception of the degree course in Corporate Communication and Public Relations) must also meet the language requirement as described in Point 2 i.e. knowledge of English to at least level B2:

- at least 12 CFU credits in the scientific-disciplinary sector L-LIN/12 (acquired during previous university studies) and have an average mark of no less than 25/30;
- or be in possession of international language certification certifying knowledge of English to at least level B2: 5.5-6.5 for IELTS; 87-109 for TOEFL iBT;
- or passing the Oxford University Press test with at least level B2.

A maximum total of 50 candidates will be admitted to the ranking list in the first two sessions.

Internal students who are unable to meet the above requirements (i.e. those who have not acquired at least 110 CFU credits and/or have an average mark of less than 25/30 as of 14 February 2022) will take the same admissions test as external students and, if they pass, will be included in the same ranking list as external students (see below).

Internal students on international mobility programmes in the first semester who intend to participate in the test in the first session must report this when presenting their application for admission, in order to be able to take into account (for the purposes of verifying the requirement of having acquired 110 CFU credits) the CFU credits gained abroad and awaiting approval.

In the sessions following the second session (subject to availability of places) internal students will take the same test as external students, and as a result a single ranking list will be drawn up based on the outcome of the test.

External graduates and undergraduates will take an admissions test (written and oral). External undergraduates may take the test provided they have registered:

- for the first session at least 90 CFU credits as of 14 February 2022;
- for the second session at least 110 CFU credits as of 7 April 2022;
- for the third session at least 130 CFU credits as of 25 May 2022.

Applicants who pass the test will be placed in a ranking list based on the result of the test. In the event of identical test results the eligible applicants will be ranked as follows:

- undergraduates will be ranked on the basis of the average mark awarded for exams registered as of the deadlines listed above for the three different sessions. For this reason external applicants will be required to produce certification of exams taken or a personal declaration, which is to be presented at the same time as the application for admission;
- graduates will be ranked on the basis of their degree mark converted into a mark out of thirty.

Applicants will be admitted to the ranking list up to the quota of places available for each session.

For the purposes of drawing up the ranking list, it is compulsory for undergraduates, when submitting their application online, to send a personal declaration of certification with the list of exams taken and the average grade to segreteria.magistrali@iulm.it (by 14 February 2022 for the first session, by 7 April 2022 for the second session, by 25 May 2022 for the third session).

Foreign graduates: following the assessment of the curricular requirements, will have an individual interview (which will be carried out online and not necessarily on the session dates), the result of which will be ‘eligible’ or ‘not eligible’. Foreign applicants who are not native English speakers are required to present international language certification certifying knowledge of English of at least level B2 before taking the admissions test; alternatively, they must pass the Oxford University Press test with at least level B2.

Those enrolled in the Master's degree course in Strategic Communication who, at the time of their application, declare themselves not to be native speakers of Italian (or not in possession of certification of knowledge of the Italian language of at least level B2) and/or non-Italian citizens, will subsequently be given instructions on how to obtain, by the end of their course of study, the required qualification attesting to their good written and oral knowledge of the Italian language. In particular, shortly before the start of the courses (September 2022) an assessment test will be organised to determine their level of knowledge of the Italian language. For those whose level is deemed to be inadequate, as well as for those who have declared themselves to be absolute beginners, it will be possible to attend the extracurricular Italian language course aimed at acquiring the necessary skills. The final evaluation will consist in the aforementioned assessment of eligibility to be acquired by the date of submission of the Master's degree application. Italian language teaching may also be organised in agreement with the other Faculties of the University and/or outsourced from external training services. Similarly, students may, in complete autonomy, attend courses outside the University aimed at acquiring a good knowledge of the Italian language, then registering (in the same way as for any other exam taken as a non-attending student) to take the aforementioned eligibility test within the specified deadlines.

Eligible foreign students will be assigned places outside the ranking list available for external applicants in the first session, or places in the single ranking list in subsequent sessions.

Confirmation of enrolment

Matriculation will be confirmed upon payment of the first instalment.

Students admitted in the first session must complete matriculation by 31 March 2022.

Students admitted in the second session must complete matriculation by 16 May 2022.

Students admitted in the third session must complete matriculation by 30 June 2022.

For internal students enrolled in the third year of their degree course in the academic year 2021/22, applicants for the first session for matriculation in the Master's Degree Courses for the academic year 2022/23, the deadline for payment of the third instalment for the academic year 2021/22 is deferred to 20 April 2022 (instead of 31 March).

For students not yet in possession of a degree certificate, matriculation is to be considered “conditional” on obtaining the degree. Students with a conditional offer are obliged to communicate the result and grade of the degree obtained as soon as they are announced, and in any case no later than 31 December 2022.

Students unable to complete enrolment owing to failure to obtain a degree qualification before 31 December 2022 will have their enrolment officially annulled. Under no circumstances will the first instalment or the enrolment fee for the admission test be refunded.
