What do you really know of the country that is hosting you? Are you curious about knowing Italy more than you do now? To satisfy your curiosity, you can read Italian newspapers or books about Italy or watch Italian television. But more than this you can watch movies: Italian films which could tell you something about the past and present of this country, helping you to get more in touch with it. "Movi(e)ng in Italy" is a journey through recent Italian films: come and join us!
