

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR COMPILING YOUR STUDY PLAN – ACADEMIC YEAR 2020/21 - BACHELOR’S DEGREE COURSES

- first year students do NOT have to compile a study plan, with the exception of students enrolled in the first year of the Degree Course in ARTS, MEDIA, CULTURAL EVENTS, who will be able to enter their OPTIONAL courses for a maximum of 18 CFU credits on the dates set out for the academic year 2020/21. The optional courses can be chosen not only from the degree course you are actually following (which would be preferable), but also from optional courses activated for any year in any other first level degree course;
- second year students must compile their study plan on the dates set out for the academic year 2020/21, for a maximum of 18 CFU credits. The optional courses can be chosen not only from the degree course you are actually following (which would be preferable), but also from optional courses activated for any year in any other first level degree course;
- third year students must compile their study plan on the dates set out for the academic year 2020/21, for a maximum of 18 CFU credits. The optional courses can be chosen not only from the degree course you are actually following (which would be preferable), but also from optional courses activated for any year in any other first level degree course;

SUPERREADING

Students who wish to enter the course in SuperReading (3 CFU credits) on their study plan may write to francesca.santulli@iulm.it for information about the course and to diversamente@iulm.it for enrolment.

INTERNSHIP

Students interested in entering an INTERNSHIP on their study plan in place of an optional course must send a copy of the final certificate issued by the Internship office explicitly formulating the request to segreteria.studenti@iulm.it. It is obligatory to enter online the teaching activity “internship”, to be selected from the list of optional training activities. The substitution of an optional subject with an internship is possible on one occasion only and for only one optional examination.

THIRD FOREIGN LANGUAGE

INTERPRETING AND COMMUNICATION: students interested in choosing a Language and Culture course for a third foreign language must submit an application using the appropriate form (available in this section from 12th October) and check beforehand that there are no timetable clashes with the language workshops.

OTHER DEGREE COURSES: students interested in choosing a Language and Culture course for a third foreign language must submit an application using the appropriate form (available in this section from 12th October).
